

Well-travelled Canadian author visiting J'Adorn

On Sunday, July 31st at 1pm, celebrated Canadian author, journalist and critic Deirdre Kelly will be in Kincardine as a special guest at J'Adorn. Deirdre will be meeting and greeting fans, signing books, and reading excerpts from her successful first novel, "Paris Times Eight".

Hailing from Toronto, Deirdre Kelly has contributed to the Globe and Mail, both as an award-winning dance critic and as a fashion columnist. She's also a featured writer in Vogue, Marie Claire, and Elle magazines. Deirdre has reported from places such as Milan and Paris, and her book, Paris Times Eight: Finding Myself in the City of Dreams, is a coming-of-age story and celebration of womanhood, told through eight visits to the iconic destination Paris. The book can be found on Elle Canada's Summer's Hottest Reads: six must-read books for Summer 2011 list. Whether you've already dog-eared your copy of the novel, or you've never heard of it but love traveling, reading, or just a great story, come and listen to Deirdre Kelly read and discuss her critically-acclaimed work, exclusively at J'Adorn.

Of course, while you're reminiscing about dreamy landscapes overseas, you'll likely spot a special treasure, among the thousands in store that speaks especially to you. Tons of summer arrivals await; picnic sets, cottage-blue furniture, garden decor, cards and gifts, art prints, and more can be found. Look for adorable pop-up fairy books, or the French ballet school paper doll set; it is just precious! There are many new sizes and colours of "art silk" carpets, which are made from viscose and wood-cellulose fibres, a renewable resource. These gorgeous, earth-friendly rugs go in any room and are machine washable.

Also look for elegantly designed, UV resistant, washable indoor/outdoor carpets.

August 7th will mark the one year anniversary of the Grand Opening of J'Adorn. It's been a fabulous year! 791 Queen St. Kincardine. 519-396-GIFT. www.jadorn.ca
