

Discover the ambience of Europe at J'Adorn

On May 1st, step from Queen Street, Kincardine, into a Paris boutique, a flea market in Provence, or a hidden Italian courtyard. Corinne Robertson-Brown opens the doors to J'Adorn, a new, gorgeous home and lifestyle store. Having completely redesigned the interior of the old shop, Corinne hopes the architectural effect will be stunning, and it absolutely takes the breath away. The new columns, arches and fine detailing are outdone only by the incredible, eclectic wares found throughout.

As a sister store to Pamper & Soothe in Thornbury and Adorn in Port Perry, J'Adorn helps you express yourself in all areas of your life. Here, you can select the perfect mirror, striking furnishings and stunning crystal chandeliers for your home. Bedeck your garden with spectacular urns, eye-catching topiaries, or a shabby-chic bistro set. Revel in the beautifully packaged and exquisite delights to be found in the parfumerie: lines such as Coudray, Lothantique, Tokyomilk, Lady Primrose, and Rancé (circa 1795... Napoleon's favourite Perfumer). Pamper yourself with luxurious products for bath and beauty. Corinne and her staff are always ready to help select the perfect gift for those with discerning taste.

Guest speakers, seminars and other interesting events are in the works, including your home • your self • your life

a “sinamay” ribbon art demonstration and a book-signing with Deirdre Kelly, author of “Paris Times Eight”. Visit www.jadorn.ca or in-store for newsletter updates and special promotions for preferred customers.

The Grand Opening festivities will be August 7th. Corinne says she is “thrilled to join and complement the other downtown shops in Kincardine, and we look forward to bringing the best of the world to your doorstep”. Stroll inside to experience it.

J'Adorn: your home, yourself, your life. Open 7 days a week in the former Rolz & Sassy location, Queen Street, Kincardine. 519 396-GIFT(4438).*
