

Welcome autumn in European style at J'Adorn

With a plethora of new arrivals to downtown Kincardine store J'Adorn, you'll be sure to see something new. Take a stroll inside and imagine you're in a gallery in Paris; there are so many stunning artworks and prints to view... but here, you can take the masterpieces home! Be on special lookout for the four retro chaise framed prints, the "Literary Lace" series, "Lyrical (1 & 2)", and the gorgeous "Lilies #54".

The conversation-starting Gurgle Pot is now available in a wide variety of colours. These fish-shaped water jugs are not only aesthetically pleasing, they make a giggle-inducing gurgle noise when pouring.

Stunning art and special interest books include photographer extraordinaire Tim Flach's "Equus", a breathtakingly beautiful book featuring horses, and "Dogs", a treasure for any dog person. Those who love the art of cooking will enjoy "French Feasts", a book with 299 traditional French recipes - written in English. The whimsical at heart will want "Mermaid Wisdom", a keepsake book. Those of you with a flair for decor must see the books "Parisian Interiors" and "The French Country Home".

For children, Corinne now has four (only!) limited edition colours of the Twilight Turtle, snap yours up! Reminisce over tiddlywinks, jacks, tiny hand-crank music boxes and jack-in-the-boxes. There's an old-fashioned ballerina jewelry box waiting for a special little girl.

Small play tea sets, one in an antique-pink rose motif tin, another in a gingham picnic basket with ladybug motif, are adorable. "Green Tiger's Illustrated Shakespeare" is a children's compilation of plays and illustrations; this is truly a unique find.

Beginning October 1st, J'Adorn will act as the box office for the Kincardine Theatre Guild. Get your tickets for their first production of the season, Anne of Green Gables, a musical.

Mature persons should look around for an Asian-inspired, painted, pillow-shaped box. Peek inside the box. Wink. You're welcome.
